

Blind Side

Lyric by: Martin H. Samuel never looking for a love affair caught me on the wrong foot unawares in the stars it was my lucky day love took me shook me when you came my way running from the rain for years and years never cared for the sound of tears but it's all right now you're here

took me on my blind side shook me with a broadside
got more love than I've had before
shook me like a landslide now it never rains but it pours (but it pours ...) never knew I could fall so hard caught me in a whirlwind off guard out of nowhere a bolt from the blue love took me shook me when I found you hiding from the clouds for oh so long never heard a single love song now you're here nothing's wrong (yeah ...)

shook me with a broadside
more love than I've had before
took me on my blind side
shook me like a landslide

shook me with a broadside
shook me like a landslide

yeah you're shaking me girl (yeah ...) yeah you blind-sided me
