

Dangerous Game

Lyric by: Martin H. Samuel

you can't stay home dreaming on your own wanting love waking up alone but taking chances on the street romance can put you on your knees holding on wanting to belong needing love making do with none taking risks you can't afford one kiss could knock you off the board

love is a dangerous game sometimes passion fades into pain just when you're sure you know the score you get more than you bargained for love's a dangerous game
be careful how you play a stranger may try to steal your heart away
be careful what you do
all too soon you'll find you're howling at the moon
