

Mixed Emotions

Lyric by: Martin H. Samuel standing on the edge of a new love affair a little bit nervous a little bit scared

cos my heart says yes and my head says no my head says stop and my heart says go blinded by the love that I can't see mixed emotions got the better of me mixed emotions which way to turn wanna jump into the fire don't wanna burn mixed emotions against the wall wanna fly to the moon I don't wanna fall

I can't take these - I can't fake these mixed emotions I can't shake these - I can't take these mixed emotions waiting in the wings of this new love affair a little bit doubtful feeling up in the air

wanna jump into the fire don't wanna burn
mixed emotions against the wall
wanna fly to the moon I don't wanna fall

I can't take these - I can't shake these mixed emotions I can't fake these - I can't take these mixed emotions

I can't shake these mixed emotions - I can't take these mixed emotions

cos my heart says yes and my head says no
my head says stop and my heart says go my heart says yes and my head says no
my head says stop and my heart says go

I can't fake these mixed emotions - I can't take these I can't fake these mixed emotions - I can't shake these I can't take these mixed emotions - I can't fake these I can't take these mixed emotions *fly to the moon - fly to the moon - flyyyy fly to the moon fly to the moon fly to the moon ...

I said jump into the fire - jump into the fire - jump into the fire*

I can't take these mixed emotions - I can't fake these ...
