

No Choice

Lyric by: Martin H. Samuel mercury's rising start to sweat can't help myself I'm soaking wet hear my heart beat double time gave the game away you're on my mind telling you with an aching soul love's taking place making me whole gonna get you cos when I met you lost my head now I can't forget you got no choice have to voice my feelings no choice it's my heart you're stealing no choice you put me on the spot I got to admit you make me hot no choice have to voice my feelings no choice got my senses reeling no choice nothing I can do have to say you light my fuse got me running out of breath because of you I'm in this mess yeah my body heat's red-lined showed my hand you're on my mind

I'm filled with a yearning inside love's flame burns in my eyes how I miss you since I first kissed you lost my heart now I can't resist you got no choice have to voice my feelings

got to admit that you make me hot
no choice have to voice my feelings

got to admit you make me hot
no choice have to voice my feelings
no choice hear my heart beat no choice you're on my mind no choice there's nothing I can do have to say you light my fuse
